

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

IN SENATE.

TUESDAY, February 10, 1846.

Prayer by the Rev. W. C. Dandy, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

The Clerk read the Journal of yesterday.

Mr. EVANS presented a petition.

Mr. EVANS moved to dispense the rules to enable him to offer a resolution, instructing the committee on Finance to inquire into the expediency of passing a law compensating Commissioners of tax for services performed before the change of the mode of taking lists: rules dispensed and resolution adopted.

Mr. W. P. BOYD moved to dispense the rules for the purpose of distributing the House bills: agreed to.

A H. R. amendment to a Senate bill to change the Anderson and Franklin county line, was concurred in.

Sundry H. R. acts were read the first time, and referred to appropriate standing committees.

A resolution from the H. R. that the Governor be addressed to remove Geo. W. Kouns from the office of Justice of the Peace for Carter county.

Mr. TODD presented a letter from Lewis Sanders, U. S. Hemp Agent for Kentucky, on the subject of supplying the Navy Department with hemp of domestic growth, which was read.

Mr. BUTLER moved that it be referred to the committee on Federal Relations: negatived.

Mr. WOODSON moved that it be referred to the committee on Agriculture and Manufactures: agreed to.

The H. R. resolution for the removal of Geo. W. Kouns from the office of Justice of the Peace for Carter county, together with the report of the select committee of the House on the case, were read.

Mr. CONNER moved the following resolution: Resolved, That the resolution of the House of Representatives in relation to the removal of Geo. W. Kouns, be referred to a committee of five, who shall hear the testimony of the memorialists and the accused, and to report the Senate at as early a day as practicable.

Mr. PATTERSON moved the following as a substitute for the resolution offered by Mr. CONNER: Resolved, That the Senate go into committee of Whole on the resolution from the House of Representatives removing by address Geo. W. Kouns, a Justice of the Peace for Carter county, at 12 o'clock on Thursday, the 19th, and that said Kouns be heard in his defence.

Mr. PATTERSON withdrew his resolution.

Mr. CONNER'S resolution was then adopted, yeas 31, nays 6, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Ballard, A. Boyd, W. P. Boyd, Bradford, Bradley, Bramlette, Chenault, Conner, Duffin, Dyer, Fox, Gray, Hardin, Harris, Heady, Helm, Henderson, Holloway, James, Marshall, Newell, Patterson, Slaughter, South, Swope, Taylor, Thomas, Thurman, Walker, Wallace, and Woodson—31.

NAYS—Messrs. Butler, Crenshaw, Evans, Key, Peyton, and Todd—6.

Mr. PEYTON moved that the committee of five be instructed to take into consideration the evidence reported by the House of Representatives, and such other testimony as shall be introduced before them, and report their opinion thereupon to the Senate: adopted.

Mr. A. BOYD, from the committee on Enrollments, reported sundry bills which were signed by the SPEAKER.

Mr. PATTERSON moved that the orders of the day be dispensed to allow the committees to report: negatived.

ORDERS OF THE DAY.

The special order—a bill to incorporate the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of Kentucky, was read by the Clerk, when

Mr. PATTERSON moved that the rules be suspended to allow the committee on Propositions and Grievances to report in reference to the erection of the new county of Underwood out of part of Caldwell: agreed to, two thirds concurring.

Mr. WALKER, from the committee on Propositions and Grievances, to whom had been referred sundry petitions and remonstrances for and against the establishment of a new county out of Caldwell, and to whom had been committed a H. R. act to establish the county of Underwood, then reported the same back to the Senate, with a statement of facts, but without any expression of opinion by the committee.

[The Speaker here announced the select committee on the resolution and address from the H. R. for the removal of George W. Kouns from the office of a Justice of the Peace for Carter county, as follows, namely: Messrs. Peyton, Swope, Butler, Newell and Todd.]

Mr. PATTERSON moved that the H. R. act to establish the county of Underwood lie on the table till the first day of June.

Mr. PATTERSON moved a call of the roll: called and the Senators all present.

And the question being taken on laying the bill on the table till the first of June, it was decided in the affirmative, yeas 22, nays 16, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. W. P. Boyd, Bradford, Bramlette, Butler, Chenault, Crenshaw, Evans, Fox, Gray, Hardin, Helm, Henderson, Holloway, Key, Patterson, Peyton, Slaughter, Taylor, Thurman, Todd, Walker and Woodson—22.

NAYS—Messrs. Ballard, A. Boyd, Bradley, Conner, Duffin, Drake, Dyer, Harris, Heady, James, Marshall, Newell, South, Swope, Thomas and Wallace—16.

MOTIONS—BY CONSENT.

Messrs. NEWELL and SWOPE were excused from serving on the committee of five on the H. R. resolution for the removal of George W. Kouns from the office of Justice of the Peace for Carter county, and Messrs. HARRIS and PATTERSON appointed in their place.

Mr. PEYTON moved that leave of absence till next Saturday be granted to Mr. FOX: granted.

Mr. SLAUGHTER, leave to introduce a bill for the benefit of John Rix: referred to a select committee.

Mr. BUTLER, leave to introduce a bill to alter the terms of the Louisville Chancery Court and the Jefferson Circuit Court, and for other purposes: referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. SLAUGHTER, leave to introduce a bill to amend the laws in relation to the inspection of salt: referred to a select committee.

Also, leave to introduce a bill to amend the charter of the Bardonia Female Academy: referred to a select committee.

Mr. EVANS, leave to introduce a bill to revive and amend the act incorporating the Louisville, Nashville and Knoxville Rail Road Company: referred to a select committee.

And then the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, February 10, 1846.

Prayers this morning were said by the Rev. Mr. ALLEN, at half past 9 o'clock, and the Journal of yesterday was then read by the Clerk.

DISPENSATION OF THE RULES.

Mr. WORTHAM, from a select committee, reported a bill to reduce the price of vacant and unappropriated lands in Grayson county: [reducing the price to three cents per acre:] passed.

Mr. J. SPEED SMITH introduced a bill to construct additional Locks and Dams on the Kentucky river: which was referred to a select committee.

Mr. CONNER reported a bill for the benefit of Sheriffs: which was read, &c., and referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. GARDNER reported a bill to change the time of holding the Butler County Court: to the 3d Monday in each month: passed.

Mr. G. also reported a bill entitled, an act to amend an act, entitled, an act, to establish a Seminary of learning in Morgantown, and for other purposes: passed.

Mr. BROWN had leave to introduce a bill to regulate the time of holding the County Courts of Larue county: which was referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. PETERS offered the following resolution, which was adopted, to-wit:

Resolved, That Saturday next be set apart for the purpose of receiving reports from select committees.

On motion of Mr. BARLOW, the resolution from the Senate, as amended in the House, for the final adjournment of the Legislature on Monday the 23d inst. was taken up; and the question being on the amendment proposed by Mr. DALLAM, 40-vit: add to the resolution the words, "at three o'clock in the afternoon:" it was concurred in: and then the resolution was adopted.

Petitions, &c., were now presented by Messrs. McKELLUP, DESHA, HARLAN, MOORE, B. STONE and WHITSETT: which were severally received and referred.

REPORTS FROM THE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY.

THE EXEMPTION LAW.

The CLERK announced the unfinished report, to-wit: a bill to repeal the law exempting specific property from execution, and reviving the law exempting $250: The question being on the adoption of the rider proposed by the gentleman from Cumberland, [Mr. Haggard,] to-wit: That one additional bed be allowed to each family having six children: The amendment was negatived.

Mr. J. SPEED SMITH then proposed his rider read on yesterday, to-wit: That articles exempted by law from execution shall not be given up without the consent of the wife, given in writing and attested by some bona fide house-keeper of the neighborhood and by the oath of the officer charged with the execution.

Mr. HARDY proposed to amend the rider, so as to prevent its conflict with other provisions of the bill, by adding the words, "unless the amount exempted shall exceed $250."

Mr. L. COMBS objected to the rider on principle. It was conceding the breeches to the wrong person—with respect to the ladies, he said it. [A laugh.] He feared it would be as the entering wedge to a course of influences to revolutionize the whole dominion of the country. [Continued laughter.] He objected to such an effectual transfer of the husband's dominion; and feared that the effect of the rider, if it should be adopted, would be to destroy the bill, &c.

Mr. WORTHAM, To settle the difficulty between the friends of the bill, he would move to lay the subject on the table: but withdrew for

Mr. J. S. SMITH. He would hardly think that the idea of a transfer of dominion could produce any considerable sensation on the part of a true man. He would not think that the alarm about the dominion of their wives could strike them very sensibly. But if the law should protect any body, it should protect the defenceless and the weak. The humble housewife, of all God's creation, was the most liable to want and wretchedness; and if her husband forsake her when visited by poverty, and when want and oppression show themselves within her dwelling, she becomes absolutely without protection, unless it can be found in the benevolence of legislation. Mr. S. offered his amendment in no spirit of levity; and he would ask for it the consideration of gentlemen of experience in the operation of our execution laws. He knew gentlemen upon this floor who were not unmoved by the appeals of suffering families, and who had often stood up with throbbing hearts, to the rescue of the unfortunate against their unfeeling creditors. It was not a thing unrequited in this country for such a door to open for the intervention of the hand of benevolence. While the worthless husband would betake himself to the grog-shop, to avoid witnessing the misery and wretchedness of his family, the officer would frequently come in, and the wife would have to live it over. As to such a man, Mr. S. had no wish to protect him; he would not only be willing to deprive him of his goods, to the very last, but he would go for placing him upon the tread-mill, and subjecting him to all the hardships of working for his bread, &c.

Mr. MAYES was in favor of the rider. The principle was correct, that this law should protect the families of poor men; and hence the propriety of the phrase of bona fide housekeeper. The benefits of the law did not apply to such as were not housekeepers, &c. When the subject first came up for consideration, Mr. M. thought he would be willing to exempt an additional work-bear and woman-saddle; but there had been so many amendments attached to it since, and its original features had been so changed that he should be compelled to vote against it. One of the amendments provided that the sum of the value of the articles exempted should not exceed $250; and the bill provided no means by which this value should be ascertained. The consequence would be, that the officer charged with the execution would have to settle upon the value of the exempted articles at his own peril. If, in his opinion, the execution debtor should be disposed to retain such specific articles as are worth more than $250, he must levy till he reduces the estate to that sum—and then he becomes liable to be sued for trespass; and, if in his judgment, the execution debtor should reserve such articles as might come within the limit of $250: he would then be liable to a suit on his bonds by the execution creditor: and thus would be opened a door for the most interminable litigation. The same exception was applicable also to the exemption of $50 in lieu of the extra work beast, &c.

Mr. E. SMITH moved to lay the bill and amendments on the table: and the yeas and nays being required thereon, it was decided in the affirmative—yeas 46, nays 44, as follows, to-wit:

YEAS—Mr. Speaker, Messrs. Balle, Barkley, Barlow, Barnett, Begley, Botts, G. Bowling, Brawnner, Brooks, Clarke, Clarke, Cleveland, J. Combs, Darnaby, Dudley, Evans, Fallis, Gardner, Gore, Haggard, Hatfield, Hay, Head, Headley, A. Johnston, Jones, Kelly, Layne, Mason, Mayes, Maxey, McCampbell, Moore, Orr, Priest, Reid, Rodman, Seaton, Shawhan, J. Speed Smith, Stephens, Stevenson, B. Stone, A. W. Thomas, Wm. Thomas, Walker, Whitlock and Whitsett—44.

NAYS—Messrs. Abbott, Alexander, Anthony, Breeden, Brown, Cessna, L. Combs, Conner, Cox, Dallam, Desha, Duncan, Ford, Fennell, Gano, Glenn, Glover, Harlan, Hardy, Howell, Hutton, Jackson, D. B. Johnson, Mayhall, Mayhall, McKellup, Miller, Murray, Myers, Orndorff, Orr, Priest, Reid, Rodman, Seaton, Shawhan, J. Speed Smith, Stephens, Stevenson, B. Stone, A. W. Thomas, Wm. Thomas, Walker, Whitlock and Whitsett—44.

So the bill was laid on the table.

Mr. MAYHALL asked for a dispensation to enable him to report the Magistrates' book bill from the committee on the Library: which was negatived.

A message from the Senate by Mr. Secretary KOHLHASS now reported the action of that body on sundry bills, &c.

Mr. HARDY moved a dispensation to take up a joint resolution just reported from the Senate: whereupon

Mr. COX made a question of order, to-wit: whether it were parliamentary for a member to move a dispensation of the rules, while the Chairman of a standing committee was entitled to the floor to make reports.

But the motion was withdrawn.

Mr. BALLE moved that the gentleman from Union be allowed to record his vote on the motion just decided by which the exemption bill was laid on the table.

Mr. DESHA proposed to extend the motion so as to allow any member absent at that time to record his vote: but the motion was withdrawn for

Mr. JOS. SMITH, who moved a re-consideration of the said vote: upon which motion the yeas and nays were ordered.

Mr. DALLAM moved a call of the House: which was negatived.

[Mr. DALLAM, from the Enrollments committee, now reported sundry bills as correctly enrolled, &c.]

Mr. SEATON was then heard in opposition to the general provisions of the bill: but favoring the amendment proposed by the gentleman from Madison.

Mr. J. S. SMITH was then heard in favor of the general provisions of the bill, and asking the House to distinguish and divide the question by voting separately upon his amendment and upon the bill—so as that the rider might not be permitted to interfere with the passage of the bill.

The question being then taken on a reconsideration, it was decided in the affirmative—yeas 47; nays 46.

The question recurring, Shall the bill be laid on the table? the motion was withdrawn; and the following amendments, proposed further by way of rider, were successively read for the information of the House, to-wit:

Mr. HARDY proposed to amend, to the effect, that, when the plaintiff in execution shall file his oath before the Magistrate, stating that he truly believes the execution defendant has reserved more than the value of $250, it shall be the duty of the Magistrate to appoint commissioners to value, &c.

Mr. MILLER offered an amendment providing for the valuation by two commissioners, in the case where the execution debtor avails himself of the $50 exemption.

Mr. BROWN sent up an amendment providing for the same case; and authorizing the officer, charged with the execution, to administer an oath to the appraisers.

Mr. R. C. BOWLING proposed an amendment, providing that the defendant in execution may be allowed to exchange with the officer such articles as the law exempts, for such other articles in his hands as the debtor may prefer, being of equal value, &c.

The question recurring on the amendment proposed by the gentleman from Madison,

Mr. DALLAM said, that it must be apparent to the mover of this amendment, [Mr. J. S. Smith,] that it would require all the strength of its friends: to pass the bill; and it was evident that the amendment would operate as an incubance, and it might defeat the bill. He would ask that gentleman, what protection his amendment would extend to the wife of a house-keeper? If the man were disposed to give up such articles of his property as the law protected for the benefit of his family—if he were so disposed, could he not as well make a private sale of those articles? The fact was, that the amendment would extend to the wife no protection whatever. But the fact was, that no man had a right to hold property who was in debt; and this whole thing of exemption was a mere favor of the law, enacted for the protection of the wife and children. As the effect of the amendment, therefore, was merely to load down and encumber the bill, he would respectfully ask the gentleman from Madison to withdraw it, that the friends of the measure might pass the bill.

Mr. E. SMITH then proposed, for information, the reading of a substitute, to the following effect, to-wit: That each man of a family, and being without real estate, &c., on his application to the County Court for that purpose, shall receive a pre-emption right to settle and appropriate fifty acres, which he may select from the unappropriated lands of such county; and such occupant shall have the right to direct the survey of such fifty acres, and a patent for the same shall be issued for his benefit, free of charge. [Laughter in the House.]

Mr. J. S. SMITH. The gentleman from Rockcastle had overwhelmed him with his benevolence. He should be pleased to hear the gentleman on the merits of his proposition; but he would rather decline accepting it as a substitute. [Laughter.]

Mr. E. SMITH then withdrew his proposition, and moved to lay the whole subject on the table—demanding the yeas and nays. But

Mr. J. S. SMITH asked that the bill and amendments be referred to the committee on the Judiciary: which carried, and the subject was referred accordingly.

IN THE ORDERS OF THE DAY.

The House went into committee of the Whole on the Railroad bill—Mr. DESHA in the Chair: the question being on the adoption of the SPEAKER'S amendment (quoted yesterday): which being read,

Mr. WALLER proposed to amend the amendment by striking out and inserting the following, to-wit:

"That the company shall pay yearly into the Sinking Fund fifty cents upon every share of stock, after a dividend of 8 per cent. shall have been first paid to the stockholders."

And he proposed also to amend the 8th section after the word "lien" by adding the following:

"Provided, That the State shall have a right to subscribe for a number of the shares of the new stock, equal to the number of shares of the old stock for which she had paid par value, and shall receive a credit on the books of the company for the full amount of said subscription."

Mr. WALLER was then heard at length in support of his amendment, and the general provisions of the bill; and he was followed by Mr. PETERS, on the same side.

Mr. G. BOWLING opposed; and when he had concluded,

Mr. COX moved that the committee rise, report progress, and ask leave to sit again.

Mr. BROWN called for a division of the question.

And the first question being, Shall the committee rise? it was decided in the affirmative.

And then the question, Shall the committee ask leave to sit again? was decided in the negative.

Mr. COX now suggested the dilemma in which the committee stood—being virtually out of session, having refused to ask leave to sit again, and neglected to authorize the chairman to report the bill to the House. No new motion could now be made in committee, and even the chairman occupied his place informally.

Mr. BROWN. The only course that could be taken was to report the bill to the House; and the refusal to ask leave to sit again was equivalent to such a determination on the part of the committee.

The SPEAKER then resumed the Chair.

Mr. COX moved that the bill and amendments be re-committed to the committee on Internal Improvements: but was ruled out of order—the SPEAKER being about to announce the daily recess. But

On motion of Mr. HARLAN, the House took up a Joint resolution of the Senate, for the appointment of a Joint committee to examine certain claims: which was read as follows, to-wit:

Be it resolved, &c., That the committee on Finance in the Senate, and the committee on Claims in the House be, and they are hereby, appointed a joint committee to examine all the claims to be included in the appropriation bill for the present session, before being presented to the House.

The resolution was adopted.

And then the SPEAKER announced the recess.

EVENING SESSION.

The SPEAKER resumed; and then the House went again into committee of the Whole on the Railroad bill—Mr. DESHA in the Chair: the question being on the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. POPE now asked that the following proposition to amend be read for information, to-wit:

Be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said State of Kentucky, after the said Railroad shall have been completed, from Louisville to Frankfort, or Louisville to Lexington, to purchase out all the stock not owned by herself, upon paying therefor the amount paid by the stockholders with—interest from the time the same shall have been paid, less the dividends declared thereon and received by the stockholders: and upon paying said amount or tendering the same, it shall be the duty of the President and Directors of said Company to release and convey to the said State all the said stock as aforesaid, by proper instrument of writing, to be acknowledged by them, and recorded in the Court of Appeals. And upon their failure to do so, it shall be lawful for the said State to file a bill in any of the Circuit Courts within this Commonwealth against the said President and Directors, and compel the same.

Mr. J. S. SMITH was then heard at length in opposition; and, closing, proposed the following condition for the modification of the bill, which was read for information, to-wit:

"The further condition of this act is, that the President and Directors of said Company shall, within six months after the passage of this act, transfer to the Governor of this Commonwealth, and his successors in office, shares of the stock of said company, equal, at par value, in amount to the sums laid out and expended by the State in the construction of said road, amounting to—dollars; and also the sums laid out and expended by the State in the slack-water navigation of the Kentucky river, amounting to—dollars; that the road and the river become the joint stock of the Company and the State: but that the river and the tolls thereon belong exclusively to the State, and be under its control, until the amount which shall be expended in the works on said road by said Company shall equal the amount invested in shares of said Company by the State; then, if not finished, the Company and the State to furnish equal sums for its completion: Provided, That should the tolls on said road, before its completion, amount to more than the tolls on the Kentucky river, the excess is to be equally divided between the State and said Company."

Mr. L. COMBS rejoined, and was heard again in favor of the bill—making a vigorous speech against the amendment suggested by the gentleman from Madison.

Mr. J. S. SMITH replied at length to Messrs. COMBS and POPE, and defending the policy of his amendment.

Mr. COX moved that the committee rise and ask leave to sit again, but gave way for

Mr. L. COMBS, who made a short response to Mr. J. S. SMITH.

Mr. WALLER'S amendment, offered as a substitute for Mr. Speaker UNDERWOOD'S amendment, was then rejected.

Mr. Speaker UNDERWOOD'S amendment was then adopted.

Mr. WALLER moved an amendment giving the State a right to subscribe a number of shares in the stock of the new company equal to the value of the shares she held in the old: adopted.

Mr. WALLER moved an amendment, in effect incorporating a Rail Road Company from Lexington to Maysville: adopted.

Mr. J. S. SMITH then moved the amendment above indicated: (that the Railroad Company transfer to the State shares of stock equal to the cost of the Kentucky river improvements, &c.) adopted.

Mr. HARDY read two amendments he desired to propose, to strike out the 4th section and the proviso of the 5th section; but no vote was taken.

On motion of Mr. COX, the committee then rose and reported the bill and amendments to the House.

Mr. POPE moved the previous question: ordered.

The House then concurred in all the amendments proposed by the committee of the Whole.

The yeas and nays being required on the adoption of Mr. J. S. SMITH'S amendment, were as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Abbott, Barnett, Begley, George Bowling, Brawnner, Cleveland, J. Combs, Desha, Duncan, Elliott, Evans, Gano, Gardner, Haggard, Harlan, Kelly, Hatfield, Hay, Head, Headley, A. Johnston, Kelly, Lapsley, Layne, Mason, Mayes, McCampbell, McKellup, Moore, Murray, Orndorff, Priest, Purdon, Shawhan, Short, J. S. Smith, Sparks, Speed, Berry Stone, Shelby Stone, A. W. Thomas, Wm. Thomas, Thurston, Walker, Wallace, Wheat, Whitlock and Wortham—48.

NAYS—Mr. Speaker, Messrs. Anthony, Barkley, Barlow, Botts, Breeden, Brown, Brooks, Cessna, Clack, Clarke, L. Combs, Conner, Cox, Dallam, Darnaby, Dudley, Ford, Fennell, Glenn, Glover, Gore, Howell, Hutton, Jackson, D. B. Johnson, Jones, Mayhall, Maxey, Miller, Myers, Orr, Peters, Pope, Rayley, Reid, Rodman, Seaton, Elisha Smith, Joseph Smith, Stephens, Stevenson and Waller—43.

Messrs. ANTHONY and COX severally moved the House to adjourn, both of which motions were negatived.

The question being then taken on engrossing and reading the bill a third time; it was decided in the negative without count; and so the bill was rejected.

And then the House adjourned.

HAYING purchased a fine and well known Coffee House, in preparation to accommodate Gentlemen, singly or any given number, with every article in his line, at all hours of the day or night. In his list of fare will be found—
BIRDS, OYSTERS—fresh or pickled, VENISON, TURKEYS, PHEASANTS, SARDINES, PIGS' FEET, TRIPE, EGGS, &c. &c.
His Bar is furnished with the purest and best Liquors in the markets of Frankfort, Lexington, Cincinnati, and New Orleans, and as he intends to devote his personal attention to those who may favor him with their patronage, he flatters himself that he will serve up his articles to suit the taste of the most fastidious Epicures. He only wishes the members of the Legislature, transient visitors, and citizens generally to give him a call, and in his countenance when they visit his house, they will not go elsewhere to find the good things in life. He also keeps on hand Cheating Tobacco and Cigars of the best brands.
